

District Tax Officer

District Tax Officer is a person appointed according to operational territories by Prevention Department of Revenue Service, who consults taxpayers about rules set by tax legislation. District Tax Officer uses public transport and is equipped with modern devices that give him/her opportunity to connect to the electronic system/base of Revenue Service. Taxpayer is provided with different kinds of services by District Tax Officers that gives them opportunity not to visit Service-centers any more.

How will be taxpayers assisted by District Tax Officers?

- District Tax Officer answers questions related to tax legislation;
- Consults taxpayer about tax benefits set by legislation;
- Informs taxpayers about legislative amendments;
- Drafts and approves documents related to writing-off of expired inventory items and/or that are unsuitable for further usage;
- Taxpayer who has a desire to obtain fixed/micro business status, is able to submit a statement on the spot, without visiting Service-centers and to obtain appropriate certificate;
- In case of detecting violation, District Tax Officer without drafting violation report defines terms for eliminating violation.

Benefits for taxpayer who cooperates with District Tax Officer

- Taxpayer avoids tax violation and sanction related to these tax violation while cooperating with District Tax officer;
- Taxpayer is able to call District Tax Officer in case of necessity to be consulted, or to contact the Head of Sector of appropriate region.

The most important is that service and consultation provided by District Tax Officer is free of charge

If you start entrepreneurial activities and do not use the service of District Tax Officer, yet:

- You can contact Head of Sector of appropriate region/Head of Regional Division; they will send District Tax Officer to you who will provide you with qualified consultation.

The most important is that service and consultation provided by District Tax Officer is free of charge

You can avoid any misfortune and sanction related to tax violation while cooperating with District Tax Officer; at the same time, you will be informed about current novelties.

Revenue Service wishes you successes!